You Are Cordially Invited To The Pennsylvania Caregiver Webinar Series Kick-Off!

The first webinar will be held on Monday, November 19, 2012 at Noon

Dr. Linda Rhodes will be the keynote speaker for this webinar. Doctor Rhodes is the "Our Parents, Ourselves" columnist for the Harrisburg Patriot News, Author of "Finding Your Way, A Practical Guide for Family Caregivers," a former Secretary for the Pennsylvania Department of Aging, and a family caregiver.

This is a special opportunity for individuals to learn about caregiver assistance programs, resources and techniques from someone who has years of experience helping caregivers and has personally experienced the ups and downs of providing daily help to a loved one.

To sign up for this meeting or find out more information, please click here. Space is limited to 200 participants. Please sign up as soon as possible.
Please note: Those who do not have an opportunity to view the webinar, will have access to see it at a later time.

In conjunction with this upcoming webinar series, the Department of Aging continues to offer the Pennsylvania Caregiver Support Program, which assists and responds to the needs of caregivers, in order for them to provide the best possible care for their loved ones.

The Pennsylvania Caregiver Support Program provides services for over 7,000 caregivers. There are many, many other caregivers who could benefit from some recognition, appreciation and information to ensure that they stay healthy in order to care for their loved one, to learn about basic legal and medical issues as well to learn about community supports available to them—it's always helpful to know you're not alone.

To find out more about the Pennsylvania Caregiver Support Program, click here or contact Bonnie Zarlenga at BZarlenga@pa.gov.

Additional Care Giver Support Webinars Will Be Held Every Month through June 2013

Please Visit the Department of Aging Website for Dates and Topics