Also, a point is defined as any antler projection (including the brow tine) at least one inch in length from base to tip. The brow tine is the point immediately above the antler burr. The main beam tip shall be counted as a point regardless of length.

An antlerless deer will remain defined as a deer without antlers, or a deer with antlers both of which are less than three inches in length.

A protected deer is one not defined as an antlered deer or an antlerless deer.

For the 2011-12 deer seasons, antler restrictions will be:

- In WMUs 1A, 1B, 2A, 2B and 2D (see Figure B), hunters will be required to abide by “three up;” three points off the main beam on one side, excluding the brow tine (the point immediately above the antler burr);
- In all other WMUs, hunters will be required to abide by a three points on one side (see Figure A); and
- Statewide, for all junior license holders, mentored youth hunters, disabled hunters with a permit to use a vehicle, and resident active duty U.S. Armed Services personnel, two or more points on one antler, or a spike three or more inches in length. Senior license holders must abide by antler restrictions.
