THE WCO DAVID L. GROVE SCHOLARSHIP

PENNSYLVANIA GAME COMMISSION Wildlife Conservation Officer David L. Grove was shot and killed in the line of duty on November 11, 2010, in Adams County. He was doing what conservation officers across the country willingly do every day without fanfare—protecting our wildlife resources. On this particular evening, WCO Grove was attempting to apprehend two poachers with firearms. He paid the ultimate price for his dedication to duty, and he shall never be forgotten by his fellow conservation officers.

David Grove loved the outdoors; he was an avid hunter and fisherman. He believed strongly in wildlife conservation, becoming a deputy WCO in 2001. David graduated from Penn State University in 2004 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Wildlife and Fisheries Science. Pursuing his dream, David applied and was selected for the 27th Class of officer cadets at the PGC's Ross Leffler School of Conservation, where he graduated in 2008 and was assigned to the southern Adams County district.

COPA is working with Penn State University to establish a scholarship fund in David's honor. Once established, these scholarship funds will benefit future Wildlife and Fisheries Science students. If you would like to help us raise the necessary funds to establish this scholarship, please send your donation to: COPA, 100 Nature Way, Milroy, PA 17063. Please make checks payable to: COPA — WCO David L. Grove Scholarship.

COPA is a 501 (C)(3) registered non-profit organization, so all contributions are tax deductible as permitted by law.
