Name of the taxpayer filing this schedule (if filing jointly enter the name shown first): Social Security Number:

Important. Each spouse should file a separate PA Schedule D. If selling jointly owned property, submit a schedule for only that property. A spouse may not offset his/her gains and losses against the other spouse's gains and losses. If filing separately and selling jointly owned property, each spouse reports only his/her half of the sale on his/her separate PA Schedule D. Read the instructions. Enter all sales, exchanges, or other dispositions of real or personal tangible and intangible property, including inherited property. Amounts from Federal Schedule D may not be correct for PA income tax purposes. Nonresidents should read carefully the instructions concerning intangible property. If the result is a loss, fill in the oval next to the line.
